LONDON DIVORCE INVOLVES FIERY

Lionel Mander Tells Lord Mersey Some Wild Stories About His Squaw.

By International News Service: LONDON, July 3 .- An Indian princess, the daughter of the late he said. Maharajah of Cooch-Behar, is the respondent in a divorce action now being heard by Lord Mersey here. Evidence was given by the husband | The judge: "You and your brother of an incident he witnessed in the married two Indian princesses?" early morning through an open window of a flat in Knightsbridge, and ed Lord Mersey, "but I desire furwas a charge of misconduct "com- case for that purpose." mitted in circumstances which appear to be almost incredible," has

The petition, which was undefended, was brought by Mr. Lionel Henry HIGHWAY BUNGALOW Mander, of Devonshire mansions, Great Portland st., against his wife, Prativa Sundari, an Indian princess, on the ground of her supposed misconduct with Reginald de Beer.

Unhappy Marriage.

"I was married on February 21, 1912, at the Register Office, Calcutta," said Mr. Mander. "We lived afterwards at Buckingham gate and The marriage was not happy, beson of violent temper.

wife returned to Indian in 1915 and did not live with her because I heard ton truck. reports of her behavior in India. She The "voyagers," who are now en has independent means.

sight. I believe he is employed as a ter K. Campbell, their daughter, Dorclerk at the Inland revenue office, othy, fourteen, and their son, James, day. My wife was living opposite in all of which virtually will be spent Bolten st. and I saw de Beer and her on the road. leaning out of a window.

conduct and I went last August to a tion was conceived by Mr. Campflat on the ground floor in Welling- bell, who is a prominent oil operaton ct., Knightsbridge. I rang the tor of Tulsa. Mr. Campbell considbell but was not admitted. I went ers that the vacation for himself to the back and climbed up some and family will be a very economrailings." Everyone Talking.

told him that his wife had been liv- tips to waiters. ing an irregular life.

Smallwood, who is a merchant in made at a fraction of the expense of Calcutta," said Mr. Mander. "He told the same trip by railroad," Mr. me that she had not been behaving Campbell stated. "But we intend herself out there and that everyone to use this car from year to year, was talking about her."

matter of great public interest if pairs from time to time, but even everyone was talking about it. She they will cost less than railroad travwas a well-known lady in India and el and its accompanying expense. people knew of and about her. "Was she a society lady? I do not of his visit to the flat, said the light he went to the back there was a light ble a street car. In one of the rooms.

climbed the railings and saw my wife the driver's seat, on which the occuand I called out my wife's name, folds into a long comfortable seat "What is the meaning of this?" " princess.

"All Indian princesses do not speak interior. English."

She is the daughter of the late Maha- rests against the right wall, but rajah of Cooch-Behar."

I think he said: "I say, this is a bit used for seats at this table.

thick," or something of the kind." took a taxicab and drove home.

on August 6, 1920, he accompanied large clothes closet of sufficient size Mr. Mander to the flat and saw a to hold the ordinary clothing of four woman and a man in the room. "I heard Mr. Mander call 'Patsey,' et is the washroom.

or some name like that. The woman made no answer, but the man got up | Mrs. Harriet Hill, who died recentand said: 'I say, old man, this is a ly in New York, was the inventor of bit cool,' or something of the sort." the familiar vending machine for the Sunrise.

ister replied that it rose at 4:30. years had beeen employed as head of "I cannot understand," said Lord paper products manufacturing com-Mersey, "this lady and gentleman ex- pany, hibiting themselves with the electric light when it was daylight."

Mr. Willis for Mr. Mander: "I do not know whether they found the weather warm and therefore had the window open, or whether they had

INDIAN PRINCESS lost all sense of decency.

The judge said there was a charge of misconduct committed in circumstances which appeared to him to be almost incredible.

> Mr. Willis: "It is the evidence, lowever credible." The judge: "Yes, but I have to make up my mind, like a jury, whether I believe it." Mr. Mander added that his wife unfortunately gave way to drink. "She is living with de Beer now," Mr. Willis: "How do you know?"

"I know it because I heard it from my brother and his wife. My brother

"I daresay it is all right," remarkthe judge, who remarked that there ther evidence, and will adjourn the

dence. OIL OPERATOR HAS

Walter K. Campbell Has Motor Driven House to Use for Summer Touring.

TULSA, Okla., July 3 .-- A trip to other places. There are no children. California is being made from this cause tempermentally we were en- city in one of the most unique "vatirely unsuited, and my wife is a per- cation boats" imaginable. This "gasoline bungalow" is mounted on "I joined the army in 1914. My a two-and-one-half-ton truck chasis came back to Enginad in 1919, but I equipped with a motor from a fivefroute to California in their "pull-"I do not know de Beer except by man" home, are Mr. and Mrs. Walsixteen. This family plans to spend "I was in a hotel in Curzon st. one two or three months "vacationing,"

The plan of building a "house on "I heard from a friend of my wife's wheels" in which to spend his vacaical one. There will be no railroad fares and no "profiteering" prices The judge asked Mr. Mander who for meals, accompanied by liberal

"While the first cost is a consid-"It was a friend of mine named erable item, the trip itself should be for it is built for service as well as The judge: "It must have been a for looks. There may be a few re-

> Motor Bungalow Compact. Campbell's "highway bungalow"

Mr. Mander, continuing the story is sixteen feet long and six feet four inches high. There are quite a few went out in the room when he was windows, which extend entirely at the front of the house, and when around the car, causing it to resem-

Campbell's "car" is very compact. "The blind was drawn and the In addition to the driver's seat, window was open," he said. "I there is another seat directly behind and Beer. I went to the road and pants may ride when they wish to saw a police constable whom I view the scenery in front. Behind brought back to the flat with me. I this seat is a commodious full-size asked him to look in at the window, berth, with a six-inch mattress that 'Pretty, what are you doing?' or when not used for sleeping purposes. Above this berth is an upper berth, The judge: "Does she speak Eng. | which fastens to the ceiling when not in use. A third bed is provided by "Yes, perfectly. She is an Indian fastening a specially-built set of springs to the opposite side of the

Across from the lower berth is a "But she was educated in England, table that swings downward and which when raised provides a large "The man came to the window and dining table. The lower berth is Underneath the lower berth are Mr. Mander added that he then a dozen drawers that extend entirely to the wall. These resemble a fil-Police Constable Gardiner said that ling cabinet. Behind the berths is a persons. Adjoining this clothes clossale of paper drinking cups in rail-The judge asked when the sun rose way stations nad other public places. that morning, and the assistant reg- She was sixty years old and for many

BARNEY GOOGLE

I JUST

HAPPENED TO

THINK THAT

THIS IS MY

DEAR WIFE'S

BIRTHDAY

WHAT'S THE

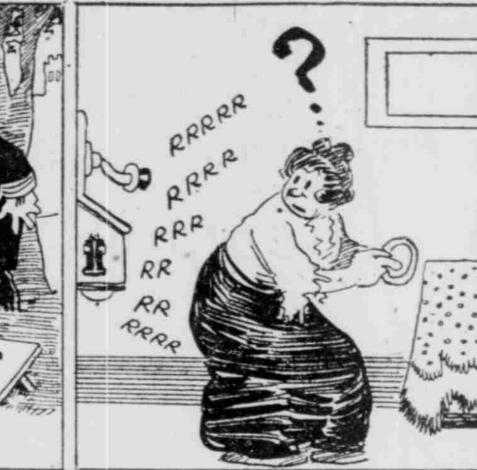

RUSH ABOUT,

BARNEY ?

AT LEAST, BARNEY'S HEART WAS IN THE RIGHT PLACE

PERCY AND FERDIE

MISS FORTUNE? THEY KNOW THE YOUNG LADY

By MacGill

TOOTS AND CASPER

IT WASN'T THE COW'S FAULT

(By J. E. Murphy)

YE-AH! TWO GALLONS OF BUT SINCE THEN MILK HER AT P. A.M. SHARP AND ONLY GET A PINT!

ARTH ARE YOU GETTING I LIKE TO GET UP AT 5 A.M. THESE OUT AND INHALE THE MORNING AIR, TOOTS!

HAD TO BUY MILK FOR BABY + HE DRINKS A GALLON STRIBBY, 1821, BY KING FRATURES SYNDICATE, INC. ME 1100440

POLLY AND HER PALS

SAFE, SANE AND SLEEPLESS, SAYS PA

(By Cliff Sterrett)

FRECKLES

WE DUN'I BEGRUDGE THE BOYS A VACATION

(By Blosser)

THE DUFFE

SOMEBODY WAS SHOOTING WILD

Allman)

